AMENDED ORDER

The United States has submitted an application pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b), requesting that the Court issue an Order commanding Facebook, Inc., an electronic communication service or remote computing service, not to notify any person, including the subscribers and customers of the accounts listed in the caption above, of the existence of the attached search warrant until further order of the Court or until one year from the date such an order is issued, whichever occurs first.

The Court determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the attached search warrant will seriously jeopardize the investigation, including giving targets an opportunity to destroy or tamper with evidence, change patterns of behavior, or intimidate potential witnesses. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b) that Facebook, Inc. shall not disclose the existence of the attached search warrant or this Order of the Court, to the listed subscribers or to any other person, for a period of one year or until further order of the court, whichever first occurs, except that Facebook, Inc. may disclose the attached search warrant to an attorney for Facebook, Inc. for the purpose of receiving legal advice

DATED this 4th day of March, 2020.

John Johnston
United States Magistrate Judge
